

Air Force Garden of Remembrance

Just past the Stanley Park Pavilion is the Air Force Garden of Remembrance, a garden of rockeries dedicated by the Women's Auxiliary to the Air Services on May 9, 1948 as a living memorial. Several plaques are installed here including those with the insignia of the Royal Canadian Air Force, Royal New Zealand Air Force and Royal Australian Air Force. Proceeds from the coins thrown into the wishing well are collected and dispersed by the Auxiliary to local military hospitals.
