OTTAWA, Canada, 20th October, 1944.

Mrs. G.W. Taylor,
125 Alfred Street,
Brantford, Ontario.

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

Further to my letter of August 30th, concerning your husband, Flying Officer Glen Whitcomb Taylor, a report has been received from Overseas containing additional information.

The report originates from Captain G. Marchant, and states: "On the 23rd August I was at Forfry 45 kilometres north east of Paris. At 2 P.M. a British plane crashed 100 yards from where I was living. It exploded and the pilot killed instantly. The Germans were on the scene immediately but the following day I raked through the ashes of the British plane and discovered the back of a Rolex Oyster wrist-watch engraved as follows: - 'G.W. Taylor, R64482'."

Although this report does not come from an official source, most unhappily it is believed to be accurate. As the source was not official, your husband will still be officially considered "missing".

Undoubtedly as our Armies are progressing through enemy occupied territory, and they are doing so at a rapid pace, the Intelligence Branch will be constantly interviewing residents there, with a view to securing as much information as possible concerning our missing personnel.

I realize that this word will be a blow to your hopes, but I feel that you would not wish us to withhold this information. May I offer you my deep sympathy in this period of anxious waiting.

Yours sincerely,

R.C.A.F. Casualty Officer, for Chief of the Air Staff.

Dear Mr. Taylor:

It is with sincere regret that I must confirm the telegram recently received by you which advised that your son, Flight Lieutenant Glen Whitcomb Taylor, previously reported missing, is now reported killed on Active Service.

The Royal Canadian Air Force Casualties Officer, Overseas, has informed me that your son lost his life during air operations on August 23rd, 1944, when his aircraft crashed in a field near Forfry, which is twenty-one miles north east of Paris, France. He was buried in the cemetery at Forfry, in a grave adjacent to the graves of several members of the French Forces of the Interior. Your son's grave is being well tended by local civilians. May I assure you that when further information is received it will be communicated to you immediately.

I know this message has brought you great sorrow, and I offer you my sincere sympathies. May the Great Architect comfort and strengthen you.

Yours sincerely,

(D.E. MacKell)
Air Commodore,
Deputy Air Member for Personnel.

Mrs. C.F. Taylor,
125 Alfred Street,
Brantford, Ontario.

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

Before you receive this letter you will have had a telegram informing you that your husband Flying Officer C.F. Taylor has been reported missing from operations. I am writing this to offer my condolences and to give you what information I can.

Glen took off with the squadron on the afternoon of August 23rd on an offensive sortie over enemy territory. In the course of the sweep our aircraft were attacked by a numerically superior number of enemy fighters. A general dogfight ensued and when it was over Glen's aircraft failed to rendevous with the squadron.

It can only be assumed that his aircraft was shot down by enemy fighters. Whether or not he abandoned his aircraft or made a crash landing is unknown. That is the extent of my information at this time.

Although Glen was with us for only about six weeks, he was very popular and becoming a most capable pilot. His loss has been keenly felt by the entire squadron. We all hope with you that better news may be forthcoming.

His personal kit will be taken care of at this end and depending on whatever further information we have, will be either held for him here or forwarded to you eventually. If I can be of any further assistance in any way, please don't hesitate to call on me.

In closing, may I offer the sincerest sympathy from myself and all members of the squadron.

Yours truly,

NOTE

(1) Example: I, John Charles Brown, of the City of Ottawa, County of Carleton, Province of Ontario, Mechanic.

(2) If only one beneficiary is named, complete as follows: I give, devise and bequeath unto:

(a) my wife

(b) Mary Brown

(c) 26 Cherry Ave., Ottawa, Ont.

(d) all my estate

If more than one beneficiary, set out in clause 2 (d) what each is to receive, such as:

"my wife, Mary Brown, 26 Cherry Ave., Ottawa, Ont. $100.00
and my household goods and effects".
"my mother, Ethel Brown, 480 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont. $100.00"
"my friend, John Smith, 60 LaSalle St., Winnipeg, Man. $100.00"
and any personal gift, if desired.

If any specific gifts as above have been made, the testator should name in Clause 3 the person or persons to whom he desires to give the balance of his estate, such as "my wife, Mary Brown, 26 Cherry Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario, the balance of my estate", or "my mother, Ethel Brown, and my father, George Brown, of 480 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, the balance of my estate in equal shares or in the event that one dies before the other, the balance to the survivor".

(3) Failure to appoint an executor or an executrix can only result in additional expense in the settlement of the estate in question. You are, therefore, strongly urged to make such an appointment. A beneficiary under the will may be appointed executor or executrix. It is recommended, however, that you avoid appointing as executor any person on or likely to be on Active Service.

(4) Do not omit to date the will. You are to sign the will with your usual signature in the presence of two witnesses, each of whom must immediately thereafter, and in your presence, sign his or her name and insert his or her address and occupation in the place provided. No person who receives any benefits under the will should act as witness. It is preferable, though not essential, that the witnesses be persons not on Active Service.

GENERAL

The laws of all the provinces of Canada, except one, provide that marriage subsequent to the date of the will revokes that will. Therefore, an officer or airman, immediately upon his marriage, should make a new will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as set out in his will.
